

CZECH TELEVISION PRESENTS COMEDY SERIES

DUBBING STREET

Dubbing street (Dabing street)

A twelve-episode comedy series whose story begins with the death of the owner of the ZERO dubbing studio, director Arch, husband to Eva. Unappreciated actress Eva inherits the studio from her husband. Her ambition is to transform it into a successful and respected business, which is also a way for her to settle her accounts with destiny. Studio technicians Pavel and Charles selflessly help her in this, as they are motivated by a secret love for both her and the profession. In order to get a bank loan to modernize the studio, Eva decides to hire the son of the bank's director, Janda, as well as Karel's promiscuous sister Lada. Thanks to Janda's methods, the actors begin to reject the work in the studio and the technicians have to take over the dubbing. The company spirals downward. Finally, when the studio and the land on which it stands are to be sold to developers, Pavel and Karel decide that they won't be giving up that easily.
